Intro: A A

A
She looks like you, the doctor said
A A
Your eyes were blue, just like the sky

F#m E D
in the delivery room, as I cradled your head
F#m E D
reflecting over an ocean, so wide

PreChorus

D D A E
And it was like, looking in the mirror

D A E
And suddenly everything seemed so much clearer

Chorus

D A
I knew then, why I was made
D A
He made your eyes look just like mine

D A F#m
God put me here to raise you and to keep you safe
D E A
To remind me of this gift called life

A
I followed you, through every first
A E A
You were messy like me and never rehearsed

F#m E D
First smile, first laugh, first steps, first words
D E
in a rush to grow into your future

Bridge

E
Left eye bruised from a fight at school
E
And as I held the pack of ice

D
Standing up for someone smaller than you
D E
couldn't take away the pain but I knew I had to try

PreChorus

D A E
'Cause it was like, looking in the mirror

D A E E
and being so proud of what you see there

Chorus

D A
I knew then, why I was made
D A
He made your eyes look just like mine

D A F#m
God put me here to raise you and to keep you safe
D E A
To remind me of this gift called life

Instrumental

Chorus

D A
I knew then, why I was made
D A
He made your eyes look just like mine

D A F#m
God put me here to raise you and to keep you safe
D E A
To remind me of this gift called life

D A
I knew then, why I was made
D A
He made your eyes look just like mine

D A F#m
God put me here to raise you and to keep you safe
D E A
To remind me of this gift called life

D E A
You remind me of this gift called life
